

Sandy & Murph Movie Reviews

SANDY

Well, Murph, I saw two really great movies this month. See you next month Murph

CINDERELLA MAN : is set in New York City during the depression. It is the true story of a man named James Braddock who takes up boxing to make money to feed his family. This movie portrays this time period in full detail. It brings tears to your eyes as to the sadness in which the people lived back then. But, this truly was a proud man who fought to keep his family together. Russell Crowe is great in this part as the boxer. I thought the movie was a little slow at times, but over all a wonderful movie. ★★☆☆

MR. & MRS. SMITH: WOW!!!!!! it was great. Brad Pitt and Angelina Jolie did an outstanding job as a married couple that didn't know what each other was doing. They were both assassins, secretly hopping the world and killing for hire. And eventually, their worlds came crashing down on each other. Brad Pitt is really funny (and cute) and Angelina is a very good actress (and beautiful). And if they are fooling around in real life--who cares. The movie was great and I would see it again! . ★★☆☆

MURPHY

MR. and MRS. SMITH--A ridiculous, but enjoyable, "Wham, Bam, Thank You Mamm!" action movie that is also a very funny comedy. Brad Pitt is calm, cool, and collected. Angelina Jolie is calm, cool and flat out gorgeous. I had fun watching it. Had even more fun watching Angelina. ★★☆☆

LORDS of DOGTOWN--You wouldn't think a movie about skateboarding in the '70s would be interesting, but this one is. A likeable cast of bare-chested, good-looking, young guys, and lots of pretty young girls running around in short-shorts. Very energetic and filled with great music from that era. ★★☆☆

An impressive group of gentlemen came to enjoy the ceremony honoring our flag that they and others sacrificed so much to defend and protect

Our ceremony is a part of teaching future generations about American history. Darin Lamphier with sons Logan and Austin are decked out in red, white, and blue.
