

News from the Jr. Elks:

On Saturday June 18, at 12:00 we will be having our Donuts with Dad function. There will be games.

Last weekend we went to the clean up at Father and Son Construction. We planted flowers, pulled weeds, and trimmed shrubs. This was a great way to earn money for our Jr. Elk fund.

We will be marching in the Memorial Day parade. Please join us.

One of our own, Kayla Dever, is recognized in a local paper and brings a good name to the Elks . Make sure you take notice, this young lady is going to do great things in her life!

Where is your mother Logan?

Don & Amanda Iodice's Granddaughter McKenna also joined us at the party

Teen wins honor for puppy work

Thirteen-year-old Kayla Dever of Rochester Hills was recently honored for her efforts prepping puppies for futures as assistance dogs.

Kayla, an "A" student at Reuther Middle School, received a Young Metro

ROGERS FOSTER

Kayla Dever of Rochester Hills earned a United Way Young Metro Volunteer Award for her work raising puppies for Paws with a Cause.

Volunteer Award from the United Way of Southeastern Michigan in recognition of her work raising foster puppies for Paws with a Cause. She devotes many hours to the task, which she shares with a neighbor, Dave Beamer.

Kayla is currently working with her third puppy, Rookie. She attends weekly training sessions, PAWS puppy classes, group outings and regular socialization outings to help the puppy become comfortable in public places.

Her first puppy is already certified and in Indiana helping a person with epilepsy.

In addition to her work with foster puppies, Kayla is active with the Rochester Junior Elks and has participated in its Meals for Wheels program.

Wow! Look at all those people. Now that's the way to throw a Party. Don't forget to come again next year
