

Sandy & Murph Movie Reviews

Well we're back with good news and bad news and our news about the movies. I will revue 3 movies this month and hope that you enjoy my comments. SANDY

UPSIDE OF ANGER—this movie is a true story about a part of Denny McClain's life when he met some alcoholic woman with a bad temper and 4 daughters. I find it hard to believe that she okay'd this script. She was evil. At the end of the movie, she mellows out slightly. There were a few funny parts, but overall, I gave it 2 1/2 stars out of 4.

SAHARA: This movie tried to shove an entire book into 2 hours and didn't do a good job. There is a lot of action. Girls jumping from camels onto trains, boys finding junk planes in the desert and making them work in 1 hour or less without any tools, people jumping 1000 feet off buildings and surviving, ahhhh, only in Hollywood.. 2 1/2 stars

FEVER PITCH: cute movie about a man who is so into the baseball, that he almost loses his sense of reality. The Boston Red Sox is his entire life until he meets a girl. Then everything tumbles upside down. A must see movie! 3 stars.

MURPHY

SIN CITY--Probably the most violent flick I have ever seen. Having said that, all the violence was not a all repulsive because of the comic-book style of the film. Dark and grimy yet visually stunning. You've never seen a movie like this before. Three stars.

ROBOTS--A brilliantly animated, sophisticated technological achievement that leaves the viewer craving for more. Not hilarious, but funny enough. Nuts and bolts, screws and washers, pipes and springs: after awhile it gets a little monotonous. Two stars.

HITCH--I've seen this theme many times before and I'm always a sucker for it. Klutz can't get the girl of his dreams. A suave, cool, never-seen-a-woman-I-couldn't-get friend helps him win her. Will Smith is warm and witty, and Kevin James is likeable as the accident prone Romeo wannabe. Two stars.

Looks like Bob Young is having to get friendly with Elmer the Elk to get to his Sloppy Joe. Maybe refueling for a game of Euchre like our new House committee chairman Julie May and Secretary and PER Tom Robinson are doing. Julie, it looks like your Dad got that trick.
